

Summit County School Librarians are invited to hear

Dr. Carolyn Brodie

From Kent State University speak on
Newbery Contenders and other New Books

Monday January 13th 8:30 am

Indian Trail School

3512 Kent Road (Rt. 59)

Stow, OH

If you are coming by expressway, exit off Rt.8 onto 2nd St. (it's really Rt. 59) and keep going east until you cross Darrow Rd. (Rt. 91 and there's a light). Take a right at the next traffic light (school driveway) and you're there.

Please pass this information on to any other certified librarians that may be interested in attending. We would like to keep a count of people who will attend to accommodate for handouts, seating etc. Please contact Mary Ann Stahr (330 896-7531 or gr_stahr@mail.neonet.k12.oh.us) if you intend to come and for further information.
